

At-Sayyid Jamalud- Din Is the Pioneer of Islah (Reformation) and Taqrib (Rapprochement)

By: Sayyid Hadi Khusroshahi

As a matter of fact, the discourse about the pioneers of at-taqrib (rapprochement), and islah (reformation) in the latest centuries is both old and new, particularly when the pioneer is Sayyid Jamalud-Din whose reputation and outcry have widely spread and reached all the spots and corners of the Islamic world. He is, surely a great reformer, advocator of at-taqrib (rapprochement), and pioneer of unity in the Islamic Ummah. Many writers have written about him. Each of them has written according to his viewpoint and perspective, so as to take us to a fruitful objective, and open for us a brilliant horizon, and a new window which reveals for us his broad outlook, multifarious personality and his depth in dealing with the variety of affairs and events of our Islamic world.

In the article of this issue of the journal we try to uncover another side and a different dimension of the personality of the late great figure Sayyid Jamalud-Din, written by the eminent ‘Allamah, and brave authority Ayatu-Llah Shaykh ‘Ali Al Kashif Al-Ghita’.
