Dear Readers

As the Editor-in-Chief of the "Iranian Journal of Nuclear Medicine (Iran J Nucl Med)", it is with immense gratitude that I reflect on our journey since the inception of this journal in 1993. The contributions of our esteemed authors and diligent reviewers have been pivotal in shaping the trajectory of the journal's growth and influence within the scientific community [1-3]. As you know, the Journal Impact Factor (JIF) is a journal-level metric calculated from data indexed in the Web of Science Core Collection. I am pleased to announce that our journal has recently received an impact factor of 0.3 for the first time from Clarivate Analytics (Web of Science). This achievement, while commendable, serves as a testament to the collaborative spirit that thrives within our journal.

I extend my heartfelt appreciation to all contributors who have tirelessly supported our mission. Your unwavering commitment to excellence has propelled the journal's standing within popular bibliographic and citation databases such as SCOPUS, ESCI (Emerging Sources Citation Index), EMBASE, EBSCO, DOAJ, ISC, Index Copernicus, IMEMR, SID, Google Scholar, Ulrichsweb™, ROAD, Sherpa Romeo, EuroPub, MIAR, CIVILICA, ABCD Index, Scientific Indexing Services, Electronic Journals Library, Academic Resource Index, CiteFactor, Magiran and others. Your invaluable insights and scholarly contributions have been instrumental in our pursuit of excellence. It is our goal to provide a platform for high-quality research in nuclear medicine and related fields, and we believe that this recent recognition is a testament to our commitment to this mission. We are dedicated to publishing innovative and insightful articles that advance the field of nuclear medicine and improve patient care. Moving forward, I would like to request your continued support and collaboration in further enhancing the reputation of our journal and increasing its impact factor. Your valuable contributions are essential in achieving this goal. Therefore, please submit your good work (preferably originals and reviews), and also cite "Iran J Nucl Med" in other indexed journals when there are publications on the same topic in our journal. In conclusion, I express my deepest gratitude to each individual who has contributed to the success of the Iranian Journal of Nuclear Medicine. Your dedication inspires us to persist in our pursuit of scholarly excellence.
